Our 'blue chip' event for 2010 will again be the Business Awards Gala Dinner. Given the evening's extraordinary success last year can I ask you to lock this into your diaries as soon as possible? It will be truly a magnificent evening.

Included in this newsletter is an invitation from Pius Fan, the Chair of our new Young Professionals Group. The branch is establishing this new exciting initiative to provide an extended forum for members.

In this Newsletter there are contributions on:

- Our 2010 Calendar of events
- Food and Wine Appreciation Dinner.
- Membership and New Members
- 2010 Membership Survey
- HKABA Victoria Chapter Young Professionals Branch

Our first Food and Wine Appreciation Dinner will be held on Friday the 21st of May at Shark Fin House in the City. Proudly sponsored by the Hong Kong Government through Hong Kong Trade Development Council (HKTDC) and Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office (HKETO), this networking event will help to promote Hong Kong as a duty free hub for the wine industry. Based around a 7 course dinner catering for approximately 170 members, a specially chosen wine will accompany each delicious dish. 2 rounds of wine guessing games will be played by each table with certificates of merit and prizes awarded to the winning teams. An entertaining and fun-filled night for all wine enthusiasts!

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS BRANCH

My name is Pius, and I am the Young Professional Chairman of the Hong Kong Australian Business Association (HKABA). Only a few years ago I was a committee member of the International Commerce Student Society (“ICSS”) for a few consecutive years.

Back then we always wanted to find pathways to broaden our horizon but often it is hard to persuade large corporations to spend time with ICSS members, other than the brunch we organised with the big 4 accounting firms each year. This is why I am delighted to work closely with students this year in expanding the pathways where students can meet and greet with experienced industry professionals who are HKABA members.

Please find attached an invitation for ICSS's members. The future needs young talent and HKABA is keen to play a part in developing the newer generation. Please contact me for further information. It would be convenient if you can provide a direct contact for me for future discussions.

Warm regards,

Pius Fan pius_fan@yahoo.com.au
